Elisa's Past Life As 'Alice' In Wonderland

(Summary)

“.. There will always be a missing piece in life. It could be either something that is left undone or someone who you could not be able to come together with. Maybe the last piece has all the meaning of our lives and therefore it is always hidden” said Elisa, before she started her talk.

It might be a specific moment that we have to spend the rest of our lives searching that missing diamond piece. Because, without that last piece, nothing will be complete..”

“..Similar to this, what was the missing piece and the true meaning of Alice’s life before she became Elisa? She had to discover it. But she would have to take a really long trip to discover this..”

nce upon a time, Alice (little girl character whose name was Elisa before she experienced time travel) saw a rabbit while she was playing on the lawn.

Alice ran after the rabbit but the rabbit went into a hole, so did Alice. She fell down, then stopped. She tried the key she had just found on a table on every lock and yet it did not fit to any. After this, she tried another door and this time the key fitted but there was a little gap. Alice found a bottle and drank it after checking it out. Alice started to get smaller. But the door has been closed before this has happened. After that Alice ate a cookie on which “Eat me!” is written and she got taller.

But Alice got so tall that her feet did not fit in her shoes. Alice was so upset about that, so she cried.

Suddenly a weird rabbit that holding a fan in one hand and a white glove in the other showed up. The fan and the glove the rabbit was holding fell down. Alice took the glove and ran after the rabbit but she started sweating, so she cooled herself down with the fan. At that moment she realized the glove of the rabbit fit her hand and her height decreased again. She saw a mouse all of a sudden and she thought about talking to that mouse and get acquainted with him. Out of the blue, her cat Dinah came to her mind. The mouse asked Alice if she had a cat. Alice replied "Yes. Don't you like cats?" He said "Of course I don't". Alice said "But my cat is not like that, it is a good cat." Then Alice entered into a house she was walking in front of. A dormouse and two rabbits were in the house. They drank tea and had a chat. They asked Alice who she was.

Alice told them, so did they to Alice. When they asked Alice to tell a story, she told them she didn't have one in her mind to tell. So they asked the dormouse to tell a story. The dormouse usually snoozes while telling a story, the story was interesting just like them.

Alice kept asking questions continuously which caused them to argue. So Alice hit the road one more time. A kingdom was on her way. A woman everyone obeyed was crying out. Alice's presence was noticed by the queen and asked her “Who are you?”. “I was walking around when I heard your holler.” replied Alice. The queen gave orders to behead her. Alice was scared because of this. After a while Alice met the mock turtle who told her his story and asked her to tell him hers.

Alice did not want to tell him because her story was complicated. Someone shouted “Trial begins!”. They ran quickly and were able to make it. The trial was quite in a mess; the mice, the rabbits, the queen, the mock turtle and Alice.

At the end of the discussions made, Alice felt like her older sister was calling her. “Alice wake up!” she was saying, “wash your hands and come to the dinner”. Alice told her that she had a very complicated dream and was told “In dreams, there is a gate that leads to the truth!” then was asked to tell her dream. Alice told as much as she remembered. She found Alice’s dream absurd. She seemed to have vanished into Wonderland after this conversation.

Who knows, maybe she has gone to find someone.. or something.. or the meaning of the life?

We will see this soon..

At the end of the story.

1. Too weird, I want to go home but cannot find my way. I guess I'm lost.

Alice: Can you tell me to where I can go from here?

Cat: It depends on where you want to go.

Alice: Doesn't matter.

Cat: So you can go everywhere.

Alice: I just want to arrive somewhere.

Cat: Of course you will. If you don't get tired of walking, you will definitely arrive at a land one day.

Alice: What kind of people live here?

Cat: A Hatter lives there and a March Hare lives over there. You can visit whoever you want, they are both mad.

Alice: What should I do among the mad?

Cat: No other choice, we are all mad here. I am mad. So are you.

Alice: How do you know that I am mad?

Cat: You must be so.. or you wouldn't have been here...

2. I can't go back to yesterday anymore, because I was a different person then.

3. Which way should I go?

If you don't know where to go, it doesn't matter which way you choose.

4. If everyone minded their own business, The world would spin faster and quicker than it does now.

5. I am not weird, a freak, or crazy. It's just that my reality is different than yours.

6. Alice : "I don't think."

Hatter : "Then you shouldn't talk, either."

7. Hatter: Am I going mad?

Alice: Yes, but let me tell you something, usually the best people in the world are crazy.

8. I can't explain myself, sir, because I am unconscious.

9. It is a thousand times better to be feared than loved.

10. If I had a world of my own, everything would be senseless.

11. The more it belongs to me the less it belongs to you.

12. I knew who I was this morning but I have changed so much since then.

13. I wish I wouldn't cry so much.

14. How long does eternity last?
