PREFACE

Do the number Pi (π) contain everything within? Such as your date of birth, your date of death, even the date of the Doomsday. Well, what if someone knew that a long time ago and coded it somewhere?

Could someone else have discovered America in the Middle Ages before Columbus? Well, what if this mysterious person is really a great Oracle who has to hide his talent, and what if his purpose of going there is not to discover a new continent, but to solve one of the world's greatest secrets, the Secret of a Mayan prophetic calendar that explains when the Doomsday in a Mayan pyramid is coming?

The Mayans actually calculated the date of the Doomsday as 13.0.0.0.0 Baktun and they encoded it into a giant calendar. Well, what did that actually mean? 13 Baktun was actually a giant code in which the Mayans, who were also adept at mathematics, placed the true date of the Doomsday into the number Pi (π), and it indicated a date that was not 2012 but further. Did the Mayans come up with this information themselves, or did they get it from a lost civilization far more advanced than themselves, called Atlantis?

Oracle Bruno realized at the end of his 22 years of work that all this could not be a coincidence, and it was all about to fall into place. "It's all over, we can't go back now, it's too late!" he said to himself and removed the sarcophagus lid of the temple and placed the last of the three large stone disks in place. Now everything was ready, he was about to find out which date actually 13th Baktun coincide with that is the biggest secret of human history hidden in the Mayan Calendar, which is impossible to solve, by calculating the hidden code in the number of Pi:

13th Baktun: $13,3333 \times 366,6666$ (day) = 4903rd code

The 4903rd number of the Pi number coincide with the year 2222.

In 1500, on a dark night in a farmhouse near Granada in Southern Spain, a gray-colored 1-meter extraterrestrial creature who called himself 'Alien' in his notes; stood in front of the door with two letters containing a series of prophecies about the future of the world and a mysterious map with a place marked on it, and with a huge picture that consisted of 100 scrambled numbers of some cryptic complex numbers and writing of future dates; and he was staring at Bruno with his big black eyes.

In fact, this number picture, which is a giant 'Anagram', was a small piece of a giant spiral that began with 3.14... and extending to infinity, in which the histories of all the past and future events in the world were encoded. Alien suddenly threw the things in his hand towards him and began to run rapidly through the cornfield towards the lights descending from the sky 1 km away. As he began to run, the flying object began to quickly descend from the sky and disappeared into the darkness. Bruno first glanced toward the direction of the alien and went with fearful eyes, he had neither seen nor heard anything like this in his entire life, except in the stories of Satan and Jinn, told by people in the Church. He was frozen with fear, he wanted to follow him in that direction, but he didn't dare. He then reached out to the papers on the ground and slowly picked them up from where the alien had left them.

These two prophetic letters that Oracle Bruno received that night, and a map that shows the location of a mysterious 'Mayan calendar' in a temple in the middle of a great continent marked with "America" in Latin-like language, across Spain, and with "Atlantis" written in the middle, would in fact be the beginning of a struggle between God and Satan, which began with the expulsion of mankind from Heaven, and continuing until the Doomsday. So that, Bruno would realize before it was too late that this bloody struggle, which would cost him and all his loved ones lives, was in fact the beginning of a great prophecy that concerned not only him but the end of all mankind.

The chain of events that began in medieval Spain with a dramatic and bitter life and death struggle in the Inquisition led Bruno and his sister Sofia on a dangerous and long journey from Andalusia to a Mayan temple in Mexico, the center of the Mayan civilization, and it would eventually end with their execution. But the Great Prophecy that was announced would bring an end not only for the church or for them, but also the whole world this time. Because The Last Prophecy was leading humanity to the end of its story, the Doomsday, which started with the expulsion from Heaven.

Where did humanity come from, where are we going?

You will find the answer to this question in The Last Prophecy.

THE TRUTH

To be or not to be, that is the question!
Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer
The slings and arrows of outrageous fortune,
Or to take arms against a sea of troubles
And by opposing end them?
To die, to sleep!

(William Shakespeare, Hamlet)

THREE MYSTERIOUS EVENTS UNEXPLAINED IN HISTORY:

How Was America Founded?

Who Were the Secret Organizations that Ruled the World and the Count of Saint Germain?

1-THE FALL OF ANCIENT AMERICA: THE FOUNDING OF THE NEW AMERICA AND "NEW ATLANTIS"

American territory was not first discovered by Columbus, but it is true that Mexico was first captured by a Spanish explorer named Hernándo Cortés, and he was the first sailor to invade Mexico on behalf of Spain.

So, who was this mystery man really?

Hernando Cortés (1485-1547)

First explorer to invade Mexican territory:

Cortez (Hernando Cortés (1485-1547)), one of the pioneers of Spanish colonization

Cortés was born in Medellin, Spain in 1485. He is also known as Hernando or Fernando, but he signed all his letters under the name Hernán Cortés. He is second degree cousin of Francisco Pizarro, who occupied the Inca Lands of present-day Peru. When Cortés went to Mexico to invade, the natives welcomed him very well, because according in their legend; in very ancient times, the white “Gods” had come from the east on ships and had taught them civilization. Then they returned to their homes in the east, promising that they would return.

Although them all of the Indians were crooked, the “Gods” were bearded, blond-haired, white-skinned, and blue-eyed, just like Pedro de Alvarado, captain of the Cortes. The Indians thought him as their God “Quetzalcoatl” and prostrated before him. For the same reason, Pizarro, who went to Peru and invaded, won an easy victory with a handful of men against the Incas of 10 million people, because their god, Viracocha, meant “White Man”.

Eventually, though sooner or later, the Indians learned over time that these invaders from the East had nothing to do with the civilized, humane, and instructive “White Gods”. They saw that they came not to give, but to steal. In a short time, the white man with the mask of religion would rob the gold, silver and precious stones of the Indians; they would destroy artworks, statues, literature of them; they would do everything to erase the culture of Indians. A soulless emptiness had collapsed on the Indians, their memories, traditions and cultures, which they had been proud of throughout history, had been brazenly crushed underfoot.

When they set foot on Mexican soil the first encounter of Cortes with the Incas who were indigenous people was that they thought him God and worshiped him. Because, before that, someone else with a white skin and a beard had come to the continent, who really was that person? History has never revealed who that person was.

These ruthless people, who had just arrived, were settling in their holy land, destroying the nature they embraced. Their ancient, very ancient civilization was fading. Manico Serra de Leguicamo, who reported to the Spanish King Philip II of the Incas in Peru, said that they did not know what crime and immorality were until the white man came, but that they changed rapidly, pattern themselves after the white man:

“Once there was no evil, but now there is almost no good left!”

But why? What was the truth?

2- FROM TEMPLARS TO MASONS TO THE PRESENT DAY:

WHAT WAS THE "NEW ATLANTIS" IDEOLOGY ACTUALLY?

[A brief and unknown history of the New World from 1500 to 2000s]

SECRET LINKS TO QUEEN ELIZABETH, AMERICA'S FOUNDING FATHERS, SIR FRANCIS BACON, COUNT OF SAINT GERMAIN AND THE RUSSIAN KREMLIN

This is a long story spanning the entire 6,000-year-old Kali Yuga age, and in this second book we will unravel several very important and never-before-known secrets that date back to these ancient times of human history, along with our hero, Oracle Bruno.

The Age of Kali Yuga, also known as the Age of Struggle or Chaos, which began with the Great Calendar of Prophecies of the Mayans around 3122 BC, is similar to the current Iron Age. There have been so many epic battles in this dark age, and the true history of the current era, defined by long-standing conflicts, is not only very long and extremely complex; many of the most important events and personalities hide their dark past somewhere deep. What is known and written in the history of this era is very few and limited. It's like the top of an iceberg above water. Well, this second book will also allow us to understand this important fact.

(Queen) Elizabeth I (1533-1603)

So much so that this story continues to the present day. In order for us to understand the current age of conflict, we need to understand several important connections intertwined in human history throughout these multifaceted millennia of epics that graphically reflect the events there. The most important of these are Egypt, Sumer, Persia, Ancient Greece, the Roman Empire, the British Empire, and finally the United States of America. However, what is written here in this book will primarily deal with the latest Anglo-American chapter in modern history. So, we'll start our story here.

* * *

In the 1500s, a new era begins with a new century in the Middle Ages, while everything will start again with its own enslaved colonies in Spain and Britain. As with what has happened in the past, it is colonization that provides the center of what is written here, and the beginning of the path and events to the new world is the Elizabethan era and Queen Elizabeth I of England. Because, 15. and 16. during the century, there was a significant change and break in the world, and during the two critical and formative periods that shaped these events to this day, The New Atlantis project had to be designed and greatly advanced. To put it simply, the seeds of the desire for personal freedom and national sovereignty that flourished in 16th century England; two hundred years later would completely germinate and establish a new world on another continent known as the New World, on American territory.

A history leap from the Elizabethan and Jacobean periods (1558 to 1625) to the ten colonies before and after the American War of Independence (1770 to 1783) and unexpected great developments in world history are still no better understood even by the most knowledgeable historians. The deep mutual relationship between the many great characters of the court that led to the execution of Queen Elizabeth (and King James) and the Founding Fathers of the American Republic has never been fully drawn or adequately accepted by history. As a result, much of real history has been lost, blurred in the fog of time, or deliberately misrepresented by these winners who write the history books.

Just like, after 100 AD, with the dispersal of Jews around the world, the closing of an era that had continued since King Solomon, and the beginning of the Golden Age of the Roman era, as in Jerusalem; London effectively became the center of the world after the decisive defeat of the Spanish Armada in 1588. Well, that was the path to the creation of the British Empire. Of course, this process would have prepared a path to the creation of America even 200 years later.

This power would symbolize the dazzlingly rich potential of the institution, described by both contemporaries and historians as “the largest community of merchants in the universe” and described in English as the “British East-India Company” and new business methods that could be both cruel and exploitative. Now this historical evidence is also clear evidence of why Britain was evolved as the center of the world by the elites so early to become the British Empire, where the sun never set, spreading all over the world. It should therefore be understandable that the English-speaking nations of the world eventually emerge as the most powerful and wealthy and influential elements on earth. Well, the extraordinary fate of the United States also stands in the middle as strong evidence of the vision and determination, planning and execution of these large-letter men and religious scholars of the Elizabethan era. The substitution of the United States as the “NEW ATLANTIS” to the world as a little-known fact is the result of a highly secret, a hundred of years “MASTER PLAN” initiated by key members of Queen Elizabeth's court. This same “MASTER PLAN” continued later, gaining more power during the “Jacobean” “Jacob” period that immediately followed, with America's official declaration of establishment confirmed by the kingdom of Britain in 1776.

It is already clear that Queen Elizabeth's reign, in many ways extraordinary and unique, was distinguished from other kingdoms and empires around the world. But it was the advisers who acted unusually wisely and indeed skillfully in his court who laid the groundwork for the development of the plans of these secret societies. Well, in the first place among these talented advisers was Sir Francis Bacon (1561-1626), who was considered by some of the world's great writers to be directly responsible for many of William Shakespeare's works.

As we mention in detail in our first book, three centuries before the Elizabethan era, there was Roger Bacon (1214-1294), an English philosopher and Franciscan priest, often regarded as the “Father of the Scientific Method”. The fact that both Francis Bacon and Roger Bacon share the same surname can come as no surprise when their true connection is revealed. Just who were these two giants of British history to understand the facts is enough to look at this? How and why did these two people influence the founding of the United States, namely New Atlantis? We understand today that these two Bacon, Francis Bacon and Roger Bacon, are two proofs of this and, given the whole medieval process, it seems to be two cornerstones.

* * *

Why was this connection between these two mysterious men living in the Middle Ages, the two Bacon – Roger Bacon and Francis Bacon – so important? Because they both played very important roles in the formation of the New Atlantis. Each envisioned a time when the New World of the West would be found by its own citizens and colonized in time. Both understood the importance of whether these new lands remained intact to be re-unearthed from the “ashes” of the original Atlantis, which had sunk at sea 12,000 years ago. In some esoteric people, it seems that the original Atlantis, advanced in both scientific knowledge and applied technology compared to our post-modern civilization, was – self – doomed and destroyed by the widespread abuse of various technologies by the societies living on it over the ages. In fact, it was claimed that Atlantis sank into the Atlantic Ocean due to heavy and disastrous abuse of its extremely powerful asteroid deflector technologies. The three points of the Bermuda Triangle still stand before our eyes as permanent evidence of the regions of Atlantis, which are home to the centers of its crystalline energy-generated superhuman technology. The crystal-based high-energy grid was not only used to power Atlantis, it was also abused by malicious rulers whose population eventually increased excessively, leading to a tendency to rebel against God, and who eventually began to worship Satan and led corruption to control them, and as a result, Atlantis was buried in the waters.

For the last 400 years, all the nations that have tried to claim and steal the Atlantic Ocean have been home to the same souls from Atlantis who have come back today to fix it. According to some esoteric information, it is understood that the Kings and Queens of the British monarchy that ruled before and during the British Empire were actually the reincarnated souls of the Roman Empire, but all this is actually for the newly established lower, that is, the New Atlantis. So, everything from the Middle Ages to the present day was prepared for the New Atlantis. It can be easily seen today that the modern nations surrounding the North Atlantic want to be filled again with the reborn souls that lived in Atlantis before it sank into the sea about 12,000 years ago, and this is the main big project that needs to be realized.

Well, Roger and Francis Bacon, with the exception of the count of Saint Germain, together with Christopher Columbus, make much more sense in the establishment of this new world order than any other historical figure of the previous millennium. They are directly responsible for setting the stage for the New Age of Aquarius – The Age of Science and Technology. In his book "The New Atlantis", Francis Bacon's contributions to the establishment of this civilization were described as follows:

"Bacon is also called the father of the idea known in philosophy as empiricism (experimentalism is the idea of achieving scientific truth and knowledge through experimental studies). His work was to establish and popularize inductive methodologies for scientific research, with the method often referred to as the Baconian method or simply the scientific method. His every scientific and philosophical request for a planned procedure that explores everything natural was the basis for a new transformation in the rhetorical and theoretical framework for science, which still surrounds most appropriate concepts of methodology today.

Now, more than beliefs and feelings, according to this new human model, Bacon had built a rational, questioning and always critical mind foundation, that is, the 'new human' model. This new human would question and criticize everything he encountered in a skeptical manner and try to reach the knowledge of truth by using his pure reason, in a materialistic manner and in an irreligious way.."

The Collapse of Spain: Spain broke the obstacle to the idea of the sole ruler of the world, an insurmountable obstacle of the New World, in an overseas expedition since Columbus, and the Christian traveled to a European country (Kingdom of England) stating European territorial claims in North America. But this colonization eventually prepared its own downfall, with civil wars and external conspiracies.

* * *

Just as we described in the first book, Isabella I The Queen of Spain, started the colonization process of America by helping Columbus with all her financial support, while the civil war was continuing at full speed in her country; similarly Francis Bacon, who was of more importance to Elizabeth than any other royal adviser, was actually engaged in the “processing of the land” of the new world, rather than philosophical thought and scientific method. His plans were part of a plan to establish the New Atlantis in the virgin regions of North America, in many and various works of Literature originally written under the name “William Shakespeare”. Every Shakespearean comedy and tragedy, history and composition of poetry was coded to spread this secret knowledge to its many secret collaborators in this new realm, which they described as The New Atlantis, as was the case throughout the planetary realm.

Not only that, he also wrote the first English translation of the Bible –the Revolutionary King James Version. In other words, Bacon is personally responsible for producing two of the most important literary works in British history. After all, now the King James Version of the Bible and the whole Bible has become the most liberating work of religious literature in the whole Christian world (Christendom). Ultimately, the papacy (or inquisition decisions related to the papacy, judicial processes, courts, etc.) the process of getting rid of the doctrinal authority of mysticism and Christian occultism (Magisterium), as well as the Christian world and the whole world with it, significantly accelerated in this direction with Bacon's preparation and publication of the King James Bible.

So, as for the non-competitors of literary non-dying masterpieces of "William Shakespeare" ? Do you think all this and the similarities could be a coincidence? The artistic beauty and spiritual wisdom of almost every play and sonnet of Shakespeare has inspired countless souls over the centuries! Shakespeare's works can now be called works written under the influence of bacon and The New Atlantis in which he conducted his project. He also used these literary masterpieces as a means of service to educate, organize, empower and enlighten people in their quest for personal and national sovereignty, respectively, of citizens and nations of other nations. But in later centuries, he led great rebellions that pushed him to seek independence for each nation, until the great French Revolution.

Now, let's look at his famous strings in this direction

(From Hamlet):

*To be, or not to be: that is the question:
Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer
The slings and arrows of outrageous fortune,
Or to take arms against a sea of troubles,
And by opposing end them? To die: to sleep;
No more; and by a sleep to say we end
The heart-ache and the thousand natural shocks
That flesh is heir to, 'tis a consummation
Devoutly to be wish'd. To die, to sleep;
To sleep: perchance to dream: ay, there's the rub;
For in that sleep of death what dreams may come
When we have shuffled off this mortal coil,
Must give us pause: there's the respect
That makes calamity of so long life;
For who would bear the whips and scorns of time,
The oppressor's wrong, the proud man's contumely,
The pangs of despised love, the law's delay,
The insolence of office and the spurns
That patient merit of the unworthy takes,
When he himself might his quietus make
With a bare bodkin? who would fardels bear,
To grunt and sweat under a weary life,*

*But that the dread of something after death,
The undiscover'd country from whose bourn
No traveller returns, puzzles the will
And makes us rather bear those ills we have Than fly to others that we know not of?
Thus conscience does make cowards of us all;
And thus the native hue of resolution
Is sicklied o'er with the pale cast of thought,
And enterprises of great pith and moment
With this regard their currents turn awry,
And lose the name of action.—Soft you now!
The fair Ophelia! Nymph, in thy orisons
Be all my sins remember'd.*

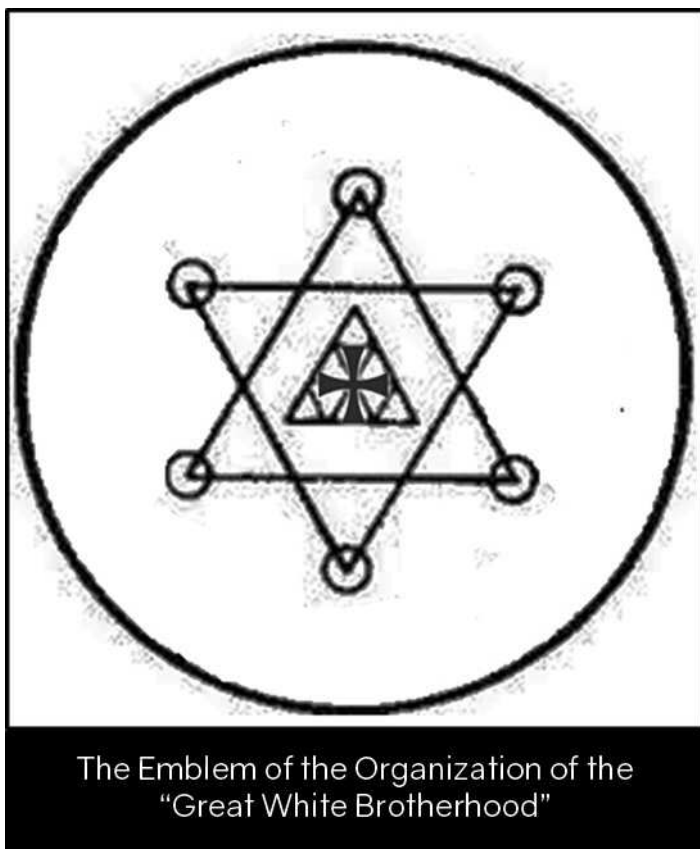

(William Shakespeare-1564-1616, Hamlet, Act III, Scene I)

3-INTRODUCTION TO THE UNKNOWN HIDDEN HISTORY OF THE WORLD

Secret Sects, Organizations That Rule The World

1 - Great White Brotherhood

WHAT IS THE GREAT WHITE BROTHERHOOD, WHAT ARE ITS ACTIVITIES?

Throughout history, faith sages all over the world are said to have been in contact with the “Rising Leaders” of a top-secret underground sect or organization that ruled the world, supposedly hiding in the Himalayas. In 1876, the founder of Theosophy, the famous mystic Helena P. Blavatsky claimed that he communicated with these "Leaders of Wisdom and Compassion" and received messages about the process of evolution of the human spirit. Blavatsky believed that all beliefs spread from a very old world religion, and the Great Leaders wanted us to explore this religion and abandon Western philosophy and practice the mysterious sides of the east. This structure, which the Great Leaders, Madame Blavatsky, also stated, communicated with, existed on earth for thousands of years, and it was thought that they have raised important people who influenced world history, including philosophers such as Buddha and Confucius and prophet Jesus. This secret doctrine and school to which these great leaders were attached was part of a very secret structure that could connect with an extraterrestrial race, which had been on Earth for millennia, and was just like a part of an ice mountain that appeared on the surface of the water:

- GREAT WHITE BROTHERHOOD -

In fact, Blavatsky's faith depends on an old belief that these eternal leaders are based on the tradition of choosing a new member as a leader, which appears every century, demonstrating their material and spiritual achievements. Perhaps one of the most well-known names of these mysterious leaders is the Count of St. Germain. This mysterious man, called the Count of St. Germain, was a member of these great leaders and appeared in many places fifty years after his death, spreading the work of this community around the world. Modern Organization of the Rose Cross claimed that the Count of St. Germain was the person responsible for spreading these magical works around the world. It is also believed that he was seen in Paris in the 1920s under the name Fulcanelli, warning people about the progress of atomic science. Other leaders also made connections to the present at some critical times, at unexpected moments.

Where Are The 100 Underground Cities?

There were also some other famous people who were in contact with this secret structure. Napoleon Hill, for example, was an important bestseller writer in America from the 1940s to the 1960s. In his last book, he wrote that he had received messages from an unnamed leader and admitted that he had written his works because of him. This unnamed leader was someone in the Himalayas who taught mystical knowledge at the school of immortal leaders and was proficient in dealing with the subject of Spiritualism. In the book, this school is clearly mentioned, these studies are explained. As a matter of fact, this information was also used in Bram Stoker's world-famous book "Dracula".

Apart from these, recently found in an ancient book in a used bookstore in Europe, India-located on the border of Nepal, in the Himalayas on a mountain secret, "Scholomance" referred to a school every year, ten were students, and at the end of the training period, a person elected to serve the devil it was. Education in this mystical school was based on the mystical teaching of King-Prophet Solomon, as well as magic. In addition, it was reported that some world-renowned writers and artists and even statesmen in ancient times were interested in these works, including, for example, the Roman emperors and the great philosophers known as Plato and Aristotle. This school has been presented to humanity throughout history by changing its name, and its last name was given by Sir George King, who was also the founder of the Aetherius Society. Sir George King (1840 - 1909), a member of the British royal science academy, was the 20th century founder of the "Great White Brotherhood" society of 144 leaders.

According to Madame Blavatsky, this community lived in the mountains, studied the spiritual development of humanity, and even studied the solar system, the astrological alignment of stars and planets, and galaxies. It was also claimed that the community of Aetherius produced cosmic energy to create sacred places. Already, some sacred places in the ancient world radiated energy (For example, “Gobekli Tepe”, located in southeast Turkey, the oldest known historical relic, or Ancient Egypt, the Himalayan mountains, or the Mayan pyramids. Atlantis, on the other hand, was the largest of these energy centers), and therefore it was always a debated fact in history that they were energy centers.

Again, an American astrologer named Linda Goodman in her third book Star Signs wrote that; in 1970 Christmas, in a hotel room in Los Angeles a man who had an Oxford accent, that said he lived in a private training center in the Himalayas had come, and his name was Nathan and he was a Zen, Buddhism and Yoga expert. Nathan's goal was to find and educate reasonable people. If these leaders or teachers are still alive and prefer bodily life rather than spiritual world life, we need to know their goals and where they come from?

Above all, these immortal leaders, according to the narrative, used underground passages in 100 underground cities that they had established in untouched areas of the Himalayas, and these passages went all the way to the inner world. And there they believed that there lived a superior race with technology far superior to us. They also said that in these schools, they welcomed and connected visitors from there. Some people and leaders who were associated with these people also said that the day was approaching when they would explain their secret technologies and some work of spiritualism. They were going to explain all this openly to the world one day. Maybe 500 years after the Middle Ages, in other words after the 2000s.

* * *

THE MYSTERIOUS MAN WHOM THE HISTORY BOOKS
NEVER MENTIONED BUT WHO PLAYED THE GREATEST
ROLE IN THE FOUNDING OF MODERN AMERICA:

WHO WAS THE COUNT OF SAINT GERMAIN?

As with the story of the discovery and founding of America, history books are often silent when it relates to the latest events that led to the creation of the New Atlantis on this new continent. However, the lost and distinguished members of world history who carried out this great project are the overseers of the Great White brothers, who still lie in the shadow of history and stand behind the curtain. And no one has heard of such unique great ascended masters as the count of Saint Germain in the history books? Who has heard the names of Kuthumi and El Morya, Maria Blavatsky, Maha Chohan and Djwal Khul, Lady Nada and Lady Portia, apart from the few?

Indeed, who were these and other ascended masters, who assumed great responsibility for the physical well-being and spiritual development of the current human race, and what were they actually working for? For the good of mankind or for the service of another master, Satan?

Even only by understanding the Great White Brotherhood and its indispensable role in saving the present race of humanity can we fully understand the true story of the New Atlantis. For this purpose, when viewed from an esoteric point of view, there is no more prominent and important person, such as the count of Saint Germain, to an extent incomparable for the last 1,000 years. Count Saint Germain, as it is known in the background of the founding of the American Republic, eventually known as the United States, in the process of emerging as an entity and the subsequent formation of privacy still stands, by the date officially encourage you to consider hiding. Had it not been for his guidance so far, his deep spiritual wisdom, and his all-encompassing unusual knowledge that informed the entire “American creation initiative,” perhaps America in its present form would not have existed.

The photo is quite distinctive by the fact that the Mysterious St. Germaine Count (visible on the far right in the photo) was already dead while taking it. His official biography states that he died on 27

February 1784. May July 31, 1831 to May 8, 1891, according to most of her biographers, Helena Blavatsky lived. This is the power of an ascended master, a power that has become immortal by defeating time.

There are three important points of information to know about the Count of Saint Germain:

- The first is that this giant among men is not an ordinary person, because he is known as a great ascended master and the Supreme Leader of the Great White Brothers.
- The second is that this Count St. Germain has been chosen as the Guardian of the Violet Flame for the current age of humanity (Quan Yin was the previous Warder of the Violet Flame).
- Thirdly, Saint Germain is considered the “father of the Republic of America” and the secret patron saint of the “United States” in the highest circles of the Great White Brothers.

None of Count St. Germain's outstanding roles should have been taken lightly. Surely, in the affairs of the current human race, he should not be disrespected by those who do not know the importance of his purpose. Count Germain's mission was, in a nutshell, a sacred mission in which planet Earth maintained its superiority over the benefit and ascension of humanity, which few souls could measure in any age. The fact that history books written by men with narrow agendas represented him in a limited and superficial way did not diminish the light of his enormous contribution to humanity. Therefore, anyone, both wise and ignorant, would serve well by giving a very clear insight into the true workings of the Great White Brotherhood of Saint Germain.

Well, the Count of St Germain, who is also considered the Founding Father of the Modern American Republic, was a well-known silhouette in 17th century European capitals, suddenly appearing in different places at different times and having a reputation in many places. Fluent in most of the European languages of his day, the Count also proved to be a very talented diplomat with unrivaled oratory and Great Prophecy (the power to see the future), and often came at the perfect time. Many of his diplomatic efforts were designed to ensure that the new 13 colonies of North America, namely the offspring of modern America, were supported in every way possible. In these many acts of etatism, St. Germain's actions, mission and purpose of his life were compared with Sir Francis Bacon, who saw the coming of a future utopian society established in this New World. Because the Count of St. Germain was also a great Prophet, just like Bacon.

Francis Bacon's greatest hope was the creation of a utopia in the Atlantic during his lifetime; the realization of the "New Atlantis" project in the form of a free country and a free community of people, governed by the principles of Freemasonry and Rosicrucian. This new principle would govern the social, political and economic life of this new nation on this new continent. It is therefore understandable why, as Lord Chancellor, he took such an active interest in the colonization of America, and why he sent his son to Virginia as one of the first colonists. Because, in America, this utopia, which George Washington and Benjamin Franklin hoped to create, was most prominent through the revolutionary activities of George Washington and Benjamin Franklin, through the pen of Thomas Paine and the writings of Thomas Jefferson, a new nation dedicated to political philosophy.

This mysterious man who plotted America's secret destiny, namely Count Germain; described by Manly P. Hall (1901 - 1990), one of the most understanding modern occultist scholars who followed Bacon, as a mysterious Rosicrucian philosopher who ate strict vegetarian food before the signing of the Declaration of Independence in 1776; beyond that, he imagined it as a superhero who could not only walk above ground, but even on water. Moreover, this mysterious person was someone who was a close friend and teacher of Franklin and Washington and seemed to play an important role in the founding of the New Republic. Why most historians still don't mention him is a complete riddle, because it sure existed, but it had to be a big reason to hide it.

The count of Saint Germain was also known as “the professor”. Along with Franklin and Washington, he was a member of the committee selected by the Continental Congress to create a design for the American flag in 1775. His design was accepted by the committee and given to Betsy Ross to transition to the first model.

A year later, on July 4, 1776, this mysterious stranger that you have never heard of the name, Independence Hall suddenly appeared again, and collected the men presented a fearful exciting address; Rosicrucianism Freemasonry and the founder of the ideals of Francis Bacon, Thomas Jefferson wrote, and ideals with a catchy name, the real name he was the creator. It is said that the count of Saint Germain again encouraged the first signature, which played a fundamental role in the founding of America, mysteriously reappeared in the signing of the “Declaration of independence”, and when all the current conditions were paralyzed by detention.

The Count of Saint Germain: when and where he was born and raised, where he died is absolutely unknown, he has appeared and seemed over time in different parts of the world over the last 1,000 years and disappeared again.

Who exactly is the Immortal Count of St Germain, where did he come from and where he went, there is no definite explanation for this. What is said and known about him is that he knows dozens of languages, has vast knowledge, prophecy and foresight, and appears somewhere once every century! Also known to be involved in secret sects. The count of Germain has been the subject of many films and novels, and throughout history, immortality has been one of the first phenomena that comes to mind, even the most important. In fact, it was said and told that the count was actually a time traveler and traveled through time. The most interesting ones were:

THE STORY OF PROPHET JESUS TURNING WATER INTO WINE:

The Count of St. Germain said that he was with him just when Jesus performed this miracle. Of course, people weren't going to believe him just because he said so. But, about this incident, the count gave such details and historical information that even the most stubborn people were confused.

He gave such fine details that even experts on the subject and Biblical experts are almost dumbfounded and cannot even oppose it.

A French artist used to say that he was "the man who knew everything." The nickname stuck with the Count of St. Germain.

THE TALENTS OF THE COUNT OF ST. GERMAIN WERE INCREDIBLE:

He was able to bring all faulty metals, including diamond, into perfect form, and he could perform tremendous works with by using the science of alchemy (Alchemy is the science of turning ordinary metals into each other and eventually gold and diamonds - a condition that can only occur in millions of years as a result of heavy nuclear reactions at the center of massive stars, including Leonardo Da Vinci and Isaac Newton, the world's leading scientists, famous Masonic masters and mystics have work on this science). It's as easy as pie for him to do 2 or even 3 difficult and attention-demanding jobs at the same time and in different places.

When asked where did you learn so much, your eminence, the count answered, without hesitation, "My education comes from the Pyramids!"

The only book of biography written about him is called:

"The Secret of St. Germain/The King"

Even the famous philosopher Voltaire used the following words for the count of St. Germain: "A man who knows everything and haven't t age for a day."

The count of St. Germain was also an occultist, alchemist, diplomat, seer, doctor with a specialty in medicine, and a horribly rich man who constantly changed places at certain times (so that people can't notice that he is not getting older), and the source of his wealth was unknown, his money never ran out.

We mentioned that the life of the count of St. Germain was the subject of films and novels. By the way, in Umberto Eco's famous work "Foucault Pendulum", The Count is the main character of the book:

AN INTERESTING CONVERSATION WITH THE IMMORTAL COUNT OF ST. GERMAIN:

"At one of the feasts held at the Count's house, the Count of St. Germain mentioned that he knew well the Roman governor named Pontius Pilatus (The Roman governor who allowed Christ to be crucified). In addition, he described in detail the governor's palace and what happened at dinner one by one.

The Cardinal, who had been invited to dinner and was disturbed by the speech, turned to butler of the count and asked:

You seem like an honest and respectable man. I can accept that your master can turn worthless mines into gold. He may just be a chatty man, but tell me, I saw Pontius Pilate, and is it believable that he said he was at least 2,000 years old? Don't you think this is overrated?

In the face of this question asked by the Cardinal, butler gives the following answer:

I don't know, your highness, I have been the butler of your esteemed count for 450 years!"
